

Where's the chocolate?

Trace the source of goodness

AN INTRODUCTION TO COCOA AGRONOMY
COCOA FARMING & POST HARVEST PROCESSING

21 MAY 2022, 0930 - 1730HRS
GARDENS BY THE BAY, SINGAPORE
SGD380 PER PAX, CONTACT US FOR GROUP DISCOUNTS

Participants will be challenged to think and start conversations on

- Practical solutions to increase farm output ethically and sustainably.
- Partnership with cacao buying stations to play an active role in managing groups of smallholder farmers to adopt best practices.
- Adoption of technology to make farming more productive and attractive to young people.
- The potential of cellular agriculture as the new frontier of cocoa production
- Interactive class activities + visit the cocoa trees

We want you!

- New entrants to the world of Cocoa
- Academic Institutions
- Those interested to understand sustainable agriculture/ farming & best practices, using cocoa as an example
- Those who has an interest in understanding cocoa farm operation, post-harvest operation
- General Interest in Cocoa and Chocolate
- Are / thinking of becoming smallholder cocoa farmers
- Opportunity to learn and network with other participants
- Recommended for ages 15 and above

More info

Organized by

In collaboration with

#Speak to us if you have a special group
Email: enquiry@cocoaasia.org